founded in 1943 negro digest later black world was the publication that launched johnson publishing during the most turbulent years of the civil rights movement negro digest black world served as a critical vehicle for political thought for supporters of the movement

arranged alphabetically from Alice Walker's Fences to Jean Childs Young. This volume profiles 312 Black American women who have achieved national or international prominence.

In this lavishly illustrated volume, Sean Dennis Cashman surveys the history of civil rights in twentieth-century America. The book charts the principal course of civil rights against the dramatic backdrop of two world wars, the Great Depression, the affluent society of the postwar world, the cultural and social agitation of the 1960s, and the emergence of the new conservatism of the 1970s and 1980s. Cashman describes the profound upheaval that African Americans experienced as they moved from the outright racism of the South through the Great Migration northward from 1915 and sets the contribution of African American leaders within their historical context: Booker T. Washington, W. E. B. Du Bois, Marcus Garvey, a Philip Randolph, Malcolm X, Martin Luther King, and many others. The work also describes the shift in emphasis in the movement from legal cases brought before the courts to mass protest movements and later the change in direction from civil rights to Black Power and later Pan-Africanism. Far more than just a history of civil rights leaders, this book explains how the achievements of African American writers, artists, singers, and athletes contributed to a wider understanding of the humanity and culture of Black Americans. Cashman details, among others, the achievements of the Harlem Renaissance, the films of Paul Robeson and Marian Anderson, and the works of Langston Hughes, Ralph Ellison, James Baldwin, and Toni Morrison. Written in an engaging style, the text is accompanied by a wealth of illustrations, some well-known, others in print for the first time.

A breathtaking achievement, this concise companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades. It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass, from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison, and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson. It contains entries on major works, including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl, Richard Wright's Native Son, and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun. It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Big Boy, Thomas Coffin, Ed Johnson, Kunta Kinte, Sula, Peace, as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima, Brer Rabbit, John Henry, Stackolee, and the Trickster. Icons of Black culture are addressed, including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali, John Coltrane, Marcus
